

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON

CODY JOE JONAS,

Case No. 3:20-cv-00663-SB

Petitioner,

ORDER

v.

J. SALAZAR, Warden,

Respondent.

MOSMAN, J.,

Petitioner Cody Joe Jonas (“Jonas”), an individual formerly in custody at FCI Sheridan (“Sheridan”), moved for entry of a preliminary injunction while housed at Sheridan (ECF No. 4). Jonas alleged that his treatment in administrative segregation at Sheridan was causing irreparable harm, and he requested a court order requiring Sheridan officials to give him access to a pen, the law library, a radio, hygiene supplies, coffee, and food.

After filing the motion for a preliminary injunction, Jonas filed a notice alerting the Court that he is now housed at FCI Phoenix (ECF No. 9). Therefore, the preliminary injunctive relief

Jonas sought relating to his administrative segregation at Sheridan is now moot. Accordingly, the Court DENIES AS MOOT Jonas' motion for a preliminary injunction (ECF No. 4).¹

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 19 day of January, 2021.

Michael W. Mosman

¹ In his motion, Jonas also sought a file-stamped copy of his petition, which the Court has now provided. (See ECF No. 12.)
